REQUEST FOR SCCT RESIDENCY

THEATRE RESIDENCIES: South Carolina Children's Theatre teaching artists can provide instruction in a one-day or repeating session of classes. Classes can end in an informal performance or be process-based. Residencies can enhance your core curriculum while delving into theatre concepts. These classes are an opportunity to meet state standards while immersing your students in an interactive drama-based class. The cost of the residency may be covered by your school, PTA or other funding source. Cost ranges between $85-$100 per hour for up to 30 participants. Discounts are available for multiple classes at the same location.
