Age Recommendation: 5th Grade & Up | Length: 70 minutes

With younger brother Kenny's birthday coming in just a few days, the Watson family makes a road trip to visit Grandma to get older brother Byron on the straight and narrow. But their plans go awry and both brothers are forced to grow up quickly. Based on the book "The Watson's Go to Birmingham - 1963" by Christopher Paul Curtis, this small ensemble play imagines the effects the 16th Street Baptist Church Bombings might have on a family visiting Birmingham that fateful Sunday. The event plays a pivotal role in bringing the Watson family together to face the monsters in the dark - both real and imagined.

February 23 – March 10, 2024

Age Recommendation: 4K & Up | Length: 60 minutes

Pinkalicious wishes that the whole world could be pink, but when she comes down with a serious case of Pinkitis, she learns the value of moderation and self-control with the help of her brother Peter... and a few green vegetables. This sweet musical is a funny way to teach younger audiences that there is such a thing as too much of a good thing.

April 26 – May 19, 2024

Age Recommendation: 3rd Grade & Up | Length: 2 hours (with an intermission)

The underwater town of Bikini Bottom is in danger in this epic and electric musical based on the popular cartoon SpongeBob SquarePants. Though underestimated as a "simple sponge," SpongeBob manages to unite the citizens and save the city from impending doom. This wildly entertaining show features songs by famous musical artists and bands that parents will love such as Cyndi Lauper, Panic! At The Disco, and The Flaming Lips, to name a few.

In SCCT's Younts Stage (capacity: 130 patrons), productions will tend to be smaller and more intimate, captivating audience members in exciting new ways (and at a lower ticket price)
